Grand Knight's Message:

Greetings Brother Knights and Sister Columbiettes

Cool Fall is Drawing Near

I can't believe that two months of my tenure is past. Leaves will begin to turn colors and then fall down, football season is almost upon us, with baseball winding down to the playoffs. Shuffleboard will be starting right after Labor Day, Our council meetings will go back to two a month (1st and 3rd Wednesdays). The Columbiettes and the fourth degree meetings will resume.

Myself and some officers will participate in the Seaford H.S. annual 911 ceremony. Time for all of us to reflect. Our annual recruitment drive and raffles will start at Saint William's, Saturday evening Sept. 28th @ 5 PM Mass and all the Sunday Masses on Sept. 29th. We will cover the Saint Rose of Lima on Saturday Oct. 19th @ 5:15 PM Mass and all the Sunday Masses. Please try to assist us before and after the Masses. Oct. 4th is the Feast of Saint Francis. You can have your pets blessed at our local churches.

The installation of myself and my fellow officers went well and we had a delicious repass served up by our great caterers, Perfect Pair. Cherrie and Debbie did a great job.

Saint William's fair was a great success, as was the fair at Saint Rose. Thanks to all the volunteers who offered their sweat and time, and to all the parishioners who supported them. Thanks to everyone!

We will NOT be selling N.Y. State C & B raffles this year, instead we are selling our own raffles at $5 each with (3) $1,000 cash prizes. Good luck to all and please support us.

DGK, Ben Vogt, is organizing trips to a Soup Kitchen. We will need volunteers. Information will be forthcoming. DGK Ben is also looking to organize a council trip to Met Life Stadium for the Jet-Giant game. Anyone interested should contact Ben ASAP for this great fraternal event.

We have a lot of work to do this year, so we will need much help and support to make things work. Congratulations to PGK Jim Kerley & Bro. Mario Spitteri who became a grandpa's for the first time. Congratulations to PGK Guy Van Noy on the marriage of his daughter Patricia.

*Peace Be With You,
GK Frank Dombrowski*

In July, 11 of us went on the Superhawk in Pt. Lookout. We caught plenty of sea bass and porgies. Mike Majikas's son Dan almost won the boat pool until someone caught a 5 lb fluke in the last 5 minutes of the trip. On August 14th 10 of us went on the Laura Lee Express in Captree. We didn't catch any keeper fluke but caught some nice sea bass, Jim Miller won our Club pool. Say a prayer for Tony Villanueva, Ken Iadarola, Jim O'Hara and Bill Landano who have some medical issues.
